12th January, The Baptism of the Lord - C

Isaiah 40:1-5,9-11

Titus 2:11-14;3:4-7

Luke 3:15-16,21-22

There was a feeling of expectancy around at the time of John the Baptist but it was directed at the wrong person. It was not the one crying in the wilderness but Jesus who was to be the saviour of all the people. It was he who took on human nature so that he could save human nature. Paul tells us to respond to this by living the life the Lord would wish.

19th January, Second Sunday in Ordinary Time - C

Isaiah 62:1-5

1 Corinthians 12:4-11

John 2:1-11

The fickleness of the people had brought on them the punishment of exile. God now shows his forgiveness by promising to restore Jerusalem and fill it with glory. In the wedding wine we are shown a new grace. Jesus the saviour is here, and a new forgiveness is upon us. The jars used for the old law's rules are now full of the new and wonderful wine of the new law of love.

26th January, Third Sunday in Ordinary Time - C

Nehemiah 8:2-10

1 Corinthians 12:12-30

Luke 1:1-4;4:14-21

Calling the people together at the time of the return from exile Ezra interprets the law for them; their 'Amen' is a declaration of faith in the word. Christ announces that he has come to bring that law to its fullness. Though we form different parts of the Body of Christ as members of the Church we are called to live by the law that Jesus gives.
